

Volume 25 No. 1 July 2019

ISSN: 1025-5648

Articles	Pages
Elisabet le Roux Can Religious Women Choose? Holding the Tension between Complicity and Agency	1-19
Eleanor Tiplady Higgs From “Imperial Maternalism” to “Matri-centrism:” Mothering Ethics in Christian Women’s Voluntarism in Kenya	20-44
Janet Jarvis & Ncamisile P Mthiyane Exploring Religious and Cultural Identities and the Right to Bodily Self-Determination in a South African Higher Education Context	45-68
Hellen Venganai “These Things Might Be There in the Bible, But They Are Hidden” – Christian Appropriations of the Practice of Labia Elongation in Zimbabwe	69-94
d. r. d. the presence of the lord is [here]: black christian theology and trans- ancestral interventions on the genders of the black body	95-124
Francis Benyah Pentecostalism, Media and the Politics of Homosexuality in Contemporary Ghana	125-149
Praxis Unoma Azuah: Praxis Section: Poetry, Religion, and Empowerment in Nigerian Lesbian Self-Writing	150-175
Book Review Maria Frahm-Arp: Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga (ed.), Powered by Faith: Pentecostal Businesswomen in Harare . Eugene: Resource Publications, 2018.	176-179